

Stacy Peardot-Goudy returns to Long Island July 18 – 20, 2025

Stacy Peardot-Goudy has been doing agility for over 30 years! She has been in this sport since its inception, she has written books, created training DVD's, taught 1000's of seminars, classes and workshops all over the US and the World.

In 2023 Stacy was awarded the prestigious USDAA Pioneer of Agility for her contributions to the development of the sport of dog agility which has had lasting significance.

Stacy has competed at the highest levels of agility with many dogs, she has competed on the World stage on multiple World teams! Stacy has competed in 100's of Finals, and, won several! Through all of the changes in agility, one thing has remained the same, a commonsense approach to dog training centered around a build on success philosophy.

Stacy uses positive motivational training practices and a reward-based system shaping what the dog naturally brings to the table into a confident, happy, competitive agility teammate. The modified K.I.S.S. Principle "Keep it Super Simple" is Stacy's mantra. No excuses, consistency, clear criteria for the Win!
